I, _____, being first duly sworn, and upon personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances recited herein, state as follows:

1. I am the plaintiff in this case. I have filed a verified Complaint for Divorce in this case. The complaint states that the defendant and I are married, and states grounds for divorce. A cause of action therefore exists against the defendant, and the defendant is a necessary and proper party to this case.

2. I have made diligent efforts to serve process on the defendant, but I have not been able to locate the defendant to complete service of process. These are the efforts I made to locate and serve process on the defendant: _____

3. The defendant's last known address is: _____

_____.

4. The newspaper in which publication is most likely to give notice to the defendant is _____, in the County of _____, City of _____, State of _____.
